

They're BAAAAACK.... The Leprechauns have struck again!!

Every year we try to catch them and every year they get away! This year they snuck in our preschool room when everyone was at lunch. They played with all of our toys, sprinkled gold dust everywhere and made a BIG MESS. They even left us a note! Most everyone was kind of excited but some of us were LESS than pleased! One of our friends even wrote the leprechaun's dad a naughty note because he made a mess without cleaning it up and in our room, that's not ok.

Boy do those leprechauns have some bad handwriting! With the help of Miss Kay, we made sure his dad knew what Louie the leprechaun did to our room.
