Summer 2010: The Summer of Stories

Each month we will feature a different author and each week's activities will surround a different book that the author has written. In addition to these activities, we will also have weekly Water Days (Mondays), monthly visits from our friends at Frosty Treats, Bike Days and Show and Tell Days. We will send out regular reminders before each weeks events. Keep in mind that all events are subject to change due to availability.
